

The University of Hohenheim is located in Stuttgart, the state capital of Baden-Württemberg in the Southwest of Germany. The city has a population of almost 600,000, the economic region of Stuttgart counts a total of 2.7 million people in 179 towns. The innovative metropolitan area is not only one of the leading economic areas in the world with companies like Mercedes Benz, Porsche, Bosch, IBM but is also known for its high quality of life. Stuttgart is the unofficial Hip-Hop capital of Germany, home of the largest three-discipline theater in Europe and offers a unique mixture of nature: parks, forests, hillsides & vineyards.

UNIVERSITY OF
HOHENHEIM

Office of International Affairs

Ms. Martine Renz | Incoming Students Advisor
Student Mobility and International Admissions Unit
T +49 (0)711 459 23209
E incoming@ua.uni-hohenheim.de

www.uni-hohenheim.de/en/office-of-international-affairs

Application deadlines and academic calendar

	Winter semester (1st semester)	Summer semester (2nd semester)
Application • semester stays • short term stays (e.g. research projects)	June 1 Immediately after acceptance by supervisor	December 1
Intensive German course	September	March
Orientation week	In the two weeks before the start of the lecture period
Semester dates (administrative dates)	October 1 until March 31	April 1 until September 30
Lecture period	Mid-October until early February	Beginning of April until mid-July
Exam period	Beginning to end of February	Mid-July until the beginning of August

Information for Exchange Students & Free Movers

Profile

Founded in 1818 after devastating famines, the University of Hohenheim is the oldest university in Stuttgart and today a leading university in agricultural research and food sciences, as well as strong and unparalleled in natural, social, business, economic, and communication sciences.

Studies

With a unique and interdisciplinary profile, the degree programs at the University of Hohenheim are very innovative. The pilot project "Mobile teaching" and "Humboldt reloaded", promoting research oriented studying, have been given the Ars Legendi Prize for excellence in teaching and other awards.

Campus

It is not only about content, but also about atmosphere: Hohenheim is one of the few campus universities in Germany and the green campus around a baroque palace is known as the most beautiful university campus in Germany.

#1 in Germany and top-ranked internationally in Agricultural, Nutritional and Food Sciences¹

Most beautiful university in Germany with a baroque palace as a landmark²

innovative teaching formats¹

Most active university in Baden-Württemberg in the field of internationalization³

¹ www.uni-hohenheim.de/en/rankings-en, ² StudyCheck survey, 2019, ³ DAAD ranking of 2019

Faculty of Agricultural Sciences

Study areas

- Agricultural Sciences
- Environmental Sciences

14 degree programs

- 3 Bachelor programs
- 11 Master programs (7 )

Faculty of Natural Sciences

Study areas

- Biology
- Nutritional Science
- Food Science/Food Chemistry
- Earth and Climate

16 degree programs

- 6 Bachelor programs
- 10 Master programs (4 )

Faculty of Business, Economics and Social Sciences

Study areas

- Business Administration and Economics
- Communication Science

10 degree programs

- 6 Bachelor programs
- 7 Master programs (2 )

Jointly offered by all faculties: Bioeconomy ()

2091 Students (25.3%)

agrar.uni-hohenheim.de

1863 Students (22.2%)

natur.uni-hohenheim.de

4665 Students (52.5%)

wiso.uni-hohenheim.de

Good to know: Exchange and Free Mover students can take modules from different programs and faculties!

Scan me for more information or go to

<https://www.uni-hohenheim.de/en/exchange-students-and-free-movers-studies>

Language Center

The Language Center offers a wide range of courses in German and 9 other languages. All courses are awarded with ECTS credits and might be recognized by your home university.

A perfect preparation for your stay is the intensive German course in September and March: Traditional language classes are supported by various activities like seminars, trips to the surroundings, company and museum visits, and much more. Good to know: Exchange students benefit from a reduced course fee!

spraz.uni-hohenheim.de

International Students Organization (ISO)

ISO is a student initiative supporting all international students in Hohenheim. Apart from the Buddy Program, which provides every exchange student with a German buddy who helps with getting settled in Hohenheim, ISO also organizes several events throughout the year, such as International Culture Nights, and a lot of trips – in and around Stuttgart but also to destinations like Berlin or the Lake of Constance.

iso.uni-hohenheim.de

Student dormitories

The student dormitories at the University of Hohenheim are located close to the campus and the university can be reached in a few minutes by foot or by bike. Students mostly live in shared apartments, i.e. they have a single room and share kitchen and bathroom. A few single apartments are also available. All rooms are furnished and the monthly ranges from € 220 to € 320.

uni-hohenheim.de/en/housing-for-int-students

